

I do not want the law to change re: the Do Not Call List. It has been wonderful not being interrupted by unsolicited phone calls. If I want information, I will seek it out. I don't need nor want people calling me. I pay for my telephone for my use, not to help someone else conduct their business!